"I am endorsing Amanda Makki because I know she will be a strong leader and true voice for the people of Florida's 13th congressional district," said Whip Scalise. "Amanda's grit and determination are exactly what we need to keep fighting against the radical, socialist agenda pushed by House Democrats. The constituents of this district deserve better than a Democrat who doesn't represent their values — they deserve Amanda Makki. I'm proud to support her campaign and look forward to helping her win!"

Florida Congressman Michael Waltz Endorses Amanda Makki

U.S. Representative Michael Waltz (CD-6), a decorated combat veteran and former Green Beret, has endorsed Amanda Makki's campaign for Congress.

"Amanda Makki is the type of servant leader the people of the 13th district deserve. She has a strong sense of duty and the ability to get things done," said Congressman Waltz. "Amanda put her country first when called to serve at the Pentagon after 9/11 and she will put her constituents first as their representative in Congress."

Florida Congressman John Rutherford Endorses Amanda Makki

"Amanda Makki is the real deal. From her time at the Pentagon, working to help fight terror and keep us safe, to her years advocating for veterans and healthcare affordability, Amanda has just the right experience to serve Pinellas County with excellence. Her fighting spirit and no-nonsense approach to cutting waste, keeping government out of our lives, and putting America first makes her the perfect person to represent Florida in Washington."

Florida Congressman Neal Dunn, M.D. Endorses Amanda Makki

“Amanda Makki is just the conservative we need to send Charlie Crist home,” said Congressman Dunn. “She is extremely accomplished and has an amazing story to tell. Pinellas County and our Country would be fortunate to have her serving in the United States Congress.”

Texas Congressman Michael Burgess, M.D. Endorses Amanda Makki

Physicians from the “Doc Caucus” continue to line up in support of Makki

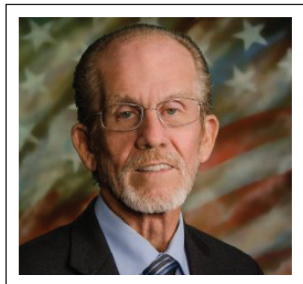

“You don’t have to be from Florida to know that people are unhappy with House Democratic Leadership and looking for a change,” said Congressman Burgess. “Amanda Makki is a fighter, an experienced healthcare policy expert and advocate, and she’s just the conservative that the people of Florida need representing them in Congress. As a physician, I look forward to working with her to reduce the cost of prescription drugs and to find sensible, conservative solutions to our country’s healthcare crisis.”

Seminole City Council Leaders Endorse Amanda Makki

St. Petersburg, FL – Two Republican City Council members have thrown their support and endorsements behind Amanda Makki highlighting her advocacy and work as a pro-business candidate.

“One thing is clear: Amanda understands what our local economy needs to stay thriving. She believes in a pro-small business environment that cuts waste and promotes keeping business and government local. She knows that all government should start local and be enhanced at the different levels,” said Councilor Thom Barnhorn.

“Amanda Makki has a proven record that shows her ability to bring the community together and find commonsense solutions that benefit all citizens,” said Councilor Bob Matthews.

Mortham, Chairman of Maggie’s List and former elected Florida Secretary of State. “Her willingness to serve and lead will make a lasting, positive impact on Florida, the 13th Congressional districts’ citizens and Washington.”

2020 First Slate Candidate Roll Out - Exceptional Republican Women Running for Congress

Amanda Makki and her family escaped an oppressive religious regime, known for its persecution of non-Muslims and silencing of non-believers, to come to America when she was just an infant. Amanda started out as a file clerk in a doctor's office and worked full-time as an office manager and medical biller while earning her college degree. Amanda was appointed by the George W. Bush Administration to serve the Army General Counsel at the Pentagon weeks after the 9/11/2001 terrorist acts. She went on to serve as senior advisor in both the U.S. Senate and the U.S. House of Representatives. Before the age of 40, Amanda became one of the youngest partners at K&L Gates, one of the nation's premier law firms, where she focused on health care policy and the firm's pro-bono efforts providing free legal counsel to the elderly.
